Subpart A—Size Eligibility Provisions and Standards

PROVISIONS OF GENERAL APPLICABILITY

§ 121.101 What are SBA size standards?

SBA's size standards define whether a business entity is small and, thus, eligible for Government programs and preferences reserved for "small business" concerns. Size standards have been established for types of economic activity, or industry, generally under the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) System. The SIC System is described in the "Standard Industrial Classification Manual" published by the Office of Management and Budget, Executive Office of the President, and sold by the U.S. Government Printing Office, Superintendent of Documents, P.O. Box 371954, Pittsburgh, PA 15250-7954. The SIC System assigns four-digit SIC codes to all economic activity within ten major divisions. Section 121.201 describes the size standards now established. A full table matching a size standard with each four-digit SIC code is also published annually by SBA in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 121.102 How does SBA establish size standards?

(a) SBA considers economic characteristics comprising the structure of an industry, including degree of competition, average firm size, start-up costs and entry barriers, and distribution of firms by size. It also considers technological changes, competition from other industries, growth trends, historical activity within an industry, unique factors occurring in the industry which may distinguish small firms from other firms, and the objectives of its programs and the impact on those
